THE RIVERSIDE CHURCH

THE RIVERSIDE CHURCH of the City of New York, formerly the Park Avenue Baptist Church, opened for worship in October, 1930, and was dedicated in February, 1931. The edifice occupies a commanding site on Riverside Drive at 122nd Street, almost opposite Grant's Tomb. The Cathedral of Chartres (A. D. 1194-1260) was the inspiration for the French-Gothic architecture of the building. The Nave and galleries accommodate 2500 people. It is 215 feet long, 89 feet wide and 100 feet high.
